

The Queensmill Trust

Appendix – Prevent Strategy

Principles

The Counter-Terrorism and Security Act (July 2015) requires the proprietors of trusts to "have due regard, in the exercise of their functions, to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism". This is known as the 'Prevent Duty'. This policy has therefore been developed in accordance with the principles established by the Counter-Terrorism and Security Act July (2015) and also the Children Acts 1989 and 2004; the Education Act 2002, and in line with government publications „Prevent Duty Guidance: for England and Wales“ (March 2015), „The Prevent Duty: Departmental Advice for trusts and childminders“ (June 2015), „The Use of Social Media for on-line radicalisation“ (July 2015), „Working Together to Safeguard Children“ (March 2015), Revised Safeguarding Statutory Guidance 2 „Framework for the Assessment of Children in Need and their Families“(2000) and „What to do if you are worried a Child is being Abused“(2003). The guidance also reflects, „Keeping Children Safe in Education“ (July 2015) and our responsibilities with regard to the Prevent Strategy. This policy should be read in conjunction with the Trust’s Safeguarding (Child Protection) Policy and Prevent Duty should be seen as part of our existing safeguarding framework.

Definition

For the purposes of this policy the definition of radical or extreme ideology is “a set of ideas which could justify vilification or violence against individuals, groups or self”. We refer to guidance in Working Together to Safeguard Children 2018 \(publishing.service.gov.uk\) to inform our approach and methodology.

Aims

- To ensure all staff understand the risks of radicalisation within our Trust and how this risk may change from time to time.
- To ensure staff are aware of the Prevent Strategy and are able to protect children and young people who are vulnerable or may be at risk of being radicalised.
- Whilst following the Prevent Strategy the Trust also maintains its mission for diversity to be a core part of all that it does. The Trust places a strong emphasis on the common values that all communities share such as self-respect, understanding, tolerance and the sanctity of life. Pupils are taught to respect and value diversity as well as understanding how to make safe, well-considered decisions.

Prevent Leads

At each school within the trust the Designated Lead for Safeguarding is the lead for Prevent although they are assisted by the Safeguarding deputies.

Louise Ahern, the Trust Business Manager, is responsible for checking premises lettings in regards to the Prevent Duties and responsible for checking visitors to the trust.

Vulnerability to radicalisation or extreme view points from the internet

The Trust recognises its duty to protect our pupils from indoctrination into any form of extreme ideology which may lead to the harm of self or others. This is particularly important because of the electronic information available through the internet. The Trust will therefore aim to do the following:

- Educate pupils on the appropriate use of social media and the dangers of downloading and sharing inappropriate material including that which is illegal under the Counter Terrorism Act.
- Ensure that pupils are unable to access any inappropriate internet sites whilst using the trust computers / laptops through the use of appropriate filtering, firewalls and security settings.
- Educate pupils through lessons and assemblies on the concepts of radicalisation and extreme ideology.
- Inform pupils on the importance of Internet Safety both through the ICT curriculum and PHSE education.

Visitors to the Trust

In order to safeguard pupils from visitors to the Trust who may have extreme or radical views the Trust will:

- Ensure all visitors to the Trust are carefully vetted and take immediate action if any individual or group is perceived to be attempting to influence members of the Trust community, either physically or electronically.
- "Open source" check any organisations which wish to have relationships with the Trust, particularly those in the voluntary sector.

Staff Training

In order to fulfil the requirements of the Prevent Duty the Trust will:

- Ensure the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) undertakes Prevent awareness training and is able to provide advice and support to other members of staff on protecting children from the risk of radicalisation.
- Ensure staff are trained to be vigilant in spotting signs of extremist views and behaviours and that they always report anything to the DSL which may suggest a pupil, another staff member or a visitor is expressing opinions which may cause concern. Staff should follow the usual reporting procedures as for any other safeguarding concern as laid out in the Trusts Safeguarding (Child Protection) Policy.
- Ensure staff understand the importance of monitoring pupil absences and promptly address concerns about irregular absence with parents and / or carers.
- Ensure staff and governors are aware of how to identify and respond to risks to children from extreme or radical views.

Curriculum

The Queensmill Trust ensures its pupils are offered a broad and balanced curriculum delivered by skilled teachers that aims to prepare them for life, encouraging them to be inquisitive learners who are enriched, understand and become tolerant of difference and diversity, whilst also ensuring that they thrive, feel valued and are not marginalized.

The Queensmill Trust values freedom of speech and the expression of beliefs / ideology as fundamental rights underpinning society's values. Pupils regularly participate in discussion, with speaking and listening being embedded in all subjects. Pupils and teachers speak freely and voice their opinions. However, there is an understanding that freedom comes with responsibility and free speech that is designed to manipulate the vulnerable or that leads to violence and harm of others goes against the moral principles in which freedom of speech is valued

Curriculum content includes:

- Promoting knowledge, skills and understanding to build the resilience of learners;
- Exploring controversial issues;
- Recognising local needs;
- Challenging extremist narratives;
- Promoting universal rights;
- Promoting critical analysis; and
- Promoting pro-social values

In the Early Years Department the statutory framework for the Early Years Foundation Stage sets standards for learning, development and care for children from 0-5, thereby assisting their personal, social and emotional development and understanding of the world.

Risk Assessments

The DSL is responsible for carrying out regular risk assessments to assess the risks of pupils being drawn into terrorism, including support for extremist ideas which are part of terrorist ideology. The DSL will also use regular risk assessments to demonstrate his / her understanding of the risks and how to identify pupils who may be at risk of radicalisation.

Hiring & Lettings

Any organisations or individuals wishing to hire the Trust will be 'open source' checked to confirm that they do not have any extreme or radical views. This requirement will also be included in any Letting Agreements.

Managing Referrals & Working in Partnership

Any pupil who is deemed to be at risk of being radicalised or extremism will be referred by the DSL as appropriate through the Local Authority Channel Referral and Intervention processes. The Trust will then work in partnership with the relevant agencies to seek advice, support and guidance drawing on multi-agency expertise, to support pupils at risk of harm.
