Start Date: September 2024

Working Arrangements: Permanent Full Time and Part Time available (Term Time Only).

Salary: Dependent upon experience/ qualifications (based on NHS Agenda For Change)

Are you interested in embracing neurodiversity affirming therapy approaches? Would you like to join a passionate multi-disciplinary team of practitioners supporting autistic children and young people and their families?

We are looking for dynamic and enthusiastic therapists to join our growing multi-disciplinary team within a variety of roles at band 5 (including NQT), 6 or 7 across our settings with fantastic opportunities to be influential in new service development at every level. We offer clinical supervision and performance management with highly experienced and knowledgeable therapists.

The Queensmill Trust is a specialist Multi-Academy Trust, with a focus on autism and related SENs. The trust governs two purpose-built Autism specialist schools, three resource bases linked to primary and secondary mainstream schools, a post-19 college, an internship programme and a small specialist residential and short break facility; supporting children and young people aged from 3 to 25 years. We are located across both the London Borough of Hammersmith and Fulham, and Kensington and Chelsea.
